

JUDGE'S NOTES

Guidelines: Use the first column to write down questions that you think may help you to get to the essence of the material you have to read/listen to and assess. In the second column, place your personal observations and responses to the material. Use the third column to note evidence or any comments/details that support your final conclusion.

Your questions	Answers/Observations	Supporting details